In 1908 Cintique, originally a beech frame manufacturer was founded by Jack Cinnamon. Located in London, the company was in the heart of the UK and well known for high quality manufacturing.

Cintique is now based in Nottingham, part of the JDP Furniture Group, where all products are manufactured using the same traditional methods, the same quality materials and have the same design ethos.

Cintique are as confident in their products, craftsmanship and quality as they ever have been so now offer a 'lifetime guarantee'* on frames and springs.
